

TRADEMARK WOMEN OF DISTINCTION

PRESS RELEASE

DR. JESSICA GRAHAM SCOTCHIE HAS BEEN SELECTED FOR INCLUSION IN THE TRADEMARK WOMEN OF DISTINCTION 2020 HONORS EDITION

CHATTANOOGA, Tennessee, October 16, 2020, Dr. Jessica Graham Scotchie has been selected for inclusion in the forthcoming Trademark Women of Distinction 2020 Honors Edition for demonstrating dedication, leadership and professional excellence. Her compassion and expertise set the standard in the industry. She has truly dedicated herself to her profession. Representing the state as one of the best in the country requires talent, experience and integrity. There is humility and personal touch she adds to her relationship with everyone she does business with, more than the value of her service it's her way of treating everyone like an extended member of her own family that people remember the most. As a talented disciplined professional she has maintained a proven track record of quality service, driven by her desire to succeed. During the vetting process it was noted along with her exceptional reputation that she has also maintained a positive peer rating. Her years of service along with her level of expertise and several other factors also contributed to her inclusion. She prides herself on honesty and integrity. She is the kind of professional admired by colleagues and peers alike. Her kindness and willingness to always help others and find solutions to most questions is both exemplary and honorable. She has made her mark on her profession as an expert and will become part of history as one of the top professionals in her field.

CONGRATULATIONS ON BECOMING THE NEWEST MEMBER OF TRADEMARK WOMEN OF DISTINCTION!

As a member of Trademark Women of Distinction, you are now part of an elite group of professional women, who have endured struggles and many obstacles to achieve a level of success that sometimes can go unnoticed or unrecognized.

Trademark Women of Distinctions' goal is to showcase successful women, help promote those who do great business, and provide a resource for women to find other likeminded women to network with, all the while knowing that you have our support and that we stand behind you. Our vetting process ensures fairness and our policy of no dues or membership fees guarantees no one can buy their way in.

Women are at the top of the world right now. We are running large corporations, small businesses, and continue to juggle the work -- life balance. Growth for all women continues to climb. More than ever, women are being recognized for their work and this trend shows no signs of a slowdown. Women are achieving in every industry. We are Doctors and contractors, engineers, attorneys, educators, athletes and everything in between. As we continue to develop our skills, we grow, we are learning so much about new trends, markets and resources becoming available. Your story has inspired us, along with thousands of other women who will hear your story and be inspired.

Unlike other organizations and associations, we will never rate your company or you based on a subscription. We are not a pay service. Your profile will be listed every year with the utmost care and precision on showcasing your latest information, upon your request, without any monthly dues or fees. Over the years, we've found many who have tried to duplicate our organization, and others who have tried to put us down for wanting women in the spotlight. Through it all, we are proud to have come out on top. We have proudly been featured all across the country, recognizing each woman and her story. Most off all the success of the organization is a reflection of its members, you!

In your welcome packet there is some additional information about Trademark Women of Distinction and how we provide services to support our member's professional goals and needs. You will also see in your packet, a nomination ballot. You may use this ballot to nominate a colleague or a woman you feel may have significant accomplishments that may have gone unnoticed. We believe in rewarding hard work, so there are always perks we make available to each and every member, even for nominating someone!

As the needs of our members have evolved, we will continue to strive to develop new and more convenient ways of providing access to our biographical data while maintaining quality. We thank each and every woman who had the courage to shrug off the naysayers and follow her dreams. It's you who will inspire the next generation of women who need our stories more than ever as not only a road map to success but as an example of what hard work and dedication really means.

We look forward to hearing about your next big professional adventure! Keep in mind we update your page every year for free, so give us a call anytime there is an update. We are always here for our members and will be happy to assist you in any way possible. We would sincerely like to take a moment to once again thank you for your commitment and dedication to your profession and leading the pack! We applaud you!
